

EXCITING NEWS! OPPORTUNITY FOR CHILDREN WITH SPECIAL NEEDS

We offer Faith Formation/CCD sessions for children with special needs. All children are loved by God and have a right to a faith development program designed especially for them.

WHEN: 3rd Sunday of the Month (8:15am to 9:45am) from September to April.

WHO: All children, regardless of the special need (e.g. verbal or non-verbal, behavioral, autism, physical, etc.)

HOW: This program will be part of our family program. Parents will stay and attend the parent session together with the parents in our regular program. The lessons will be individualized and designed for your child. The children will share their time with our dedicated catechists (certified special education Teachers, special ed. Aides and any parents who wish to assist.) You will be nearby at all times.

Please call our office in order to make an appointment with the Director in order to discuss the program in more detail, answer any questions, and/or register.
